

AGvisorPRO Press Release

Calgary, Alberta
September 14th, 2020: For Immediate release

Farm Credit Canada offers Advisory Services through AGvisorPRO

FCC Advisory Services joins as an AGvisorPRO Tech Direct Solution partner on the connectivity platform. Farmers will now have access to Farm Credit Canada's free farm transition service through AGvisorPRO.

"There will be billions of dollars of farm assets transitioning between generations in the coming years as baby boomer farmers hand the reins to the next generation." says Robert Saik, Founder and CEO of AGvisorPRO, "We are delighted to be able to partner with FCC on providing an additional means for farmers to connect with trusted advisors who help Canadian farm families get started with their transition plans. As an AGvisorPRO Tech Direct Solution industry partner, FCC's free farm transition services will be available to any farmers who are in the early stages of family farm transition."

FCC Advisory Services adds to the growing list of Tech Direct agriculture firms offering farmers immediate connectivity to company reps and experts. Additionally, AGvisorPRO provides connection between farmers, independent advisors, researchers and even government experts.

AGvisorPRO is device agnostic and can be downloaded on iOS, Android and desktop devices and was recognized as The 2020 Ag Innovation of Year by the Ag in Motion Discovery Plus farm show.
